

compare	to provide evidence for something contrast	to make an argument easier to understand by giving more information demonstrate	to show how something is similar to something else explain	to form an opinion based on facts support	to prove something by showing examples develop	to study something closely and carefully infer	to show how things are different interpret	to show the reason/cause for something summarize	to tell again using fewer words analyze	to explain the meaning of something